

Informational Hearing of the Assembly Committee on Aging and Long-Term Care

"The Community Based Adult Services Transition: Impacts to Participants, Families, and Communities"
Assemblymember Yamada, Chairperson

Monday, September 24, 2012
State Capitol, Room 126
1:00 – 3:00 p.m.

I. Opening Statements:

- Assemblymember Mariko Yamada, Chairperson
- Committee Members
- Honorable Participants

II. Presentation by Department of Health Care Services: Community Based Adult Services (CBAS) Transition: costs & savings; eligibility determination procedures; treatment authorization; appeals; quality assurance, and access.

- Toby Douglas, Director, Department of Health Care Services

III. Presentation by Consumers and Providers, DHCS Response: Consumers and providers describe recent experiences and challenges in a changing service delivery and consumer environment.

- Debbie Toth, CEO, Rehabilitation Services of Northern California
- Micheal Pope, Executive Director, Alzheimer's Services of the East Bay
- Nina M. Nolcox, RN, PHN & Administrator, Graceful Senescence ADHC
- Consumers of CBAS describe their experiences
- Toby Douglas, Director, Department of Health Care Services

IV. Review, Lessons Learned, and Moving Forward: Experts offer guidance on lessons learned from the ADHC to CBAS transition, and how those lessons may be of value to future beneficiary transition planning.

- Kevin Prindiville, Deputy Director, National Senior Citizens Law Center
- Gary Passmore, Executive Director, Congress of California Seniors
- Toby Douglas, Director, Department of Health Care Services

V. Closing Statements and Public Testimony